Donne & Cavalli, the Georgia-based company that produces botanical skin care products for equestrian athletes, donated product to the Moon Dance 2006 fundraiser held last month in Sun Prairie, Wisconsin. The highlight of the event that benefited the Three Gaits Therapeutic Horsemanship Center was a clinic with Olympian, Debbie McDonald.

The event, which is chaired by Marti Coursin, raised over $30,000. Donne & Cavalli President, Donna Mastrianni, was not surprised at the event's success. "Debbie McDonald is quite a draw. She is really the sweetheart of dressage. And the event was well organized by Marti and her crew", said Mastrianni. Mastrianni even prepared a special Donne & Cavalli basket for Debbie McDonald to thank her for making the fundraiser such a success.

The Debbie McDonald clinic was sold out two weeks in advance and over 250 auditors attended each day... despite the 29-degree Wisconsin weather! More than 500 people attended the Saturday evening benefit gala and silent auction.

"The baskets are part of our commitment to giveback to the equestrian community that has made our skincare line so popular," said Marstianni when asked about Donne & Cavalli's contribution to the event.

The Moon Dance 2006 is one of more than a dozen equestrian events that Donne and Cavalli has supported in an effort to give back to the equestrian community. The company has made product donations to the Equus Foundation's Fete Cheval, Lendon Gray's Dressage for Kids Festival, the Palm Beach Cancer Society's Demin and Pearls fundraiser, the Fredrica Academy's People, Places & Pets auction and Dressage at Equestrian Estates

"We are a small company committed to getting equestrians to take care of themselves -as well as they take care their horses," says Mastrianni. Donne & Cavalli products are available at fine tack stores or online at www.donneandcavalli.com.
